"The Busy Corner."

Always the Best of Everything for the Least Money.

OPEN UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK TOMORROW NIGHT.

MADAME YALE'S LECTURE on "The Art of Attractiveness" will be delivered May 14, 2:30 P.M., at the New National Theater. Reserved seat tickets are being distributed by us. We would like to have our many lady patrons take advantage of this rich treat.

Our Timely Selling Tomorrow.

Any one with the wherewithal can hire space in the papers and appeal to the eye with spectacular advertisements. Not every one, however, can reap results. It's easy to assert—bold type is impressive and superlative inexpensive—but it's the doing, not the saying, that counts in the long run. Behind words should be facts. In the face of conflicting claims, the public is observant and discriminating. That our ample resources and vast outlet gives us a great vantage ground in buying cannot be questioned. And as we buy so we sell.

AFFAIRS IN ALEXANDRIA

QUESTION RAISED ABOUT PAYING FEES OF MAYOR'S COUNSEL.

Early Morning Fire in a Shoe Store—Coming Presentation of Portraits.

The question has been raised as to whether counsel employed in the case of Mayor George L. Simpson against the board of police commissioners, which is to be argued before Judge Nicol in the circuit court Saturday, the 18th instant, shall be paid by the city. City Auditor Price states that if the attorneys are paid out of the city treasury it will be only upon the order of the city council. He refers to a litigation between a former mayor and the board of police commissioners in 1897, in which the auditor took the position that the city council was not a party to the controversy and could not be made one without its consent. In that instance, however, counsel ordered the payment of the mayor's attorney. After much discussion in subsequent meetings of the bills of the commissioners were also ordered paid.

Auditor Price referred to the law under which the corporation attorney had been elected, and which outlined the scope of that office. He said that as Corporation Attorney Theodore had not been engaged in the case it must be assumed that the parties to the litigation had arranged matters with the board of police commissioners. The case was represented by Attorney John M. Johnson and the case of the commissioners will be conducted by Attorneys Francis L. Smith and Samuel G. Brown.

Early Morning Fire.
Fire was discovered about 4 o'clock this morning in the rear of J. W. Gaines' shoe store, No. 329 King street. When a fire engine reached the place but little difficulty was experienced in extinguishing the flames. An examination of the stock by the proprietor showed considerable damage by fire and water, estimated to reach several hundred dollars. There was an insurance on the stock.

General Matters.
Arrangements have been about completed for the ceremonies attending the presentation to the corporation of portraits of several distinguished citizens of the county, which will take place at Fairfax Court House the 20th instant, as before mentioned in The Star. Owing to stress of business Col. Francis L. Smith of this city will not be able to make the address on the presentation of the portrait of Judge D. M. Chichester. That speech will be made by Mr. Lewis H. Machon of Fairfax.

The remains of Mrs. Phoebe Harrison, whose death occurred Tuesday at her home in Fairfax, will be forwarded tomorrow morning to the former home of the deceased at Orange, N. J. for interment.

The unloading of a lot of partially decomposed fish from a barge on the flats opposite the southern end of this city has been a matter of complaint to Mayor Simpson. Many of the fish have been blown over to the wharves of this city by the east wind, where the stench has proved most intolerable. The mayor will take steps to prevent a repetition of the offense.

Miss Mary L. Fennell and Mr. Samuel B. Otis, well-known young people of this city, were married last evening at the parsonage of the First Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George L. Hunt, the pastor.

FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET.

Senate of the Republic at Westminster Memorial Church.
The first annual banquet of the Senate of the Republic of the Westminster Church Memorial was held in the chapel of the church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The chapel was handsomely decorated with American flags and beautiful flowers, which, together with the electric lights, made a pretty scene. After the supper was served the following toasts were responded to: "Our Pastor," proposed by Mr. John Stephenson, reply by Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt; "The President," proposed by Mr. Perry Leishner, reply by Mr. J. Walter Stephenson; "Our Guests," proposed by Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt, reply by Mr. W. A. Church and Dr. D. McKenrick Hickling; "The Other Societies," proposed by Harry Riley, reply by Mr. L. S. Dupre, superintendent of Sunday school; Mrs. B. F. Anderson, president of Christian Endeavor; Mr. Owen Owen, president of Men's Club, and Miss Margaret Stephenson, president of Girls' Guild; "The Ladies," proposed by Mr. Neville D. Miller, reply by Miss Jessie White; "Our Honorary Member," proposed by Mr. Robert Burns, reply sent from British Columbia by Mr. E. J. Macdonald, read by the president; "Old Glory," proposed by Mr. Joseph W. McKelcher, reply by Mr. Melville Church, Mr. Herman H. Bredekamp and Mr. Lewis C. Godwin.

Among those present whose names have not already been mentioned were Misses Mary Riley, Allen Miller, Sadie White, Julia Stephenson, Maude Burns, Hazel Kline, Emma Yerkes, Bertha Pinner, Margaret Wimsatt and Messrs. John Stephenson and Frank Anderson. The following ladies waited on the table: Misses Mary Church, Jessie White and Annie Handry and Mrs. Douglas C. Miller and Mrs. J. Frank Stephenson. Among those who were invited, but not present, were Rev. D. W. Skellenger, Mr. Leonard Pounce, president of the House of Representatives, and the republic; Mr. A. Dupre, Mr. Frank A. Law, Jr., and Mr. Archie Williams. The officers of the senate are: J. Walter Stephenson, president; Perry Leishner, secretary; Neville D. Miller, recording secretary; Herman H. Bredekamp, corresponding secretary, and Joseph W. McKelcher, treasurer.

The senate meets the first and third days of every month and jointly with the House and Representatives the last Friday of every February, May, August and November.

THE UNITY LITERARY CLUB.

Annual Meeting Held With More Than 200 Persons Present.
The annual meeting of the Unity Literary Club was held in the sun parlors of the Hotel Stratford, 14th street and Sheridan avenue northwest, last Wednesday evening. More than 200 of the club members and friends of the club assembled for the annual election and other business of the club. The entertainment was opened by a well-executed piano solo, "William Tell," by Charline Brown, which was followed by the business of the club, including the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: H. B. Moulton, president; Mr. George S. Anthony, vice president; Miss Mary C. Bennett, recording secretary; Dr. Jesse B. Schaffert, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Silas Boyce, treasurer; Mrs. J. F. Rueckert and Miss Cornelia L. Lloyd, directors.

The essay of the evening was given by Capt. A. S. Perham, entitled "The Siege of Jerusalem by Titus." The paper was replete with illustrations of the struggle which resulted in the utter destruction of the city of Jerusalem and the loss of about 1,000,000 lives. This was followed by a musical program of classic selections, arranged by Miss J. Adelle Levers, as follows: "Estrildanting" (a vocal quartet), and an encore with whistling and piano accompaniment, was given by Miss Levers, Miss Fletcher, Miss French and Miss Hawthorth; Mr. Harrington Barker contributed a tenor solo, "Fiddle and I." Miss Chemo-weth's deep contralto was effective in "The Dying Rose." Miss Levers' solo, a fine executed selection from Wagner, followed by an encore; "It Came With the Merry May" was an expressly given contralto solo by Miss Alice Fletcher; a soprano solo, "Se Saran Rose," with violin obligato by Mr. Yundt and piano accompaniment by Mrs. Albert Jackson, was charmingly rendered by Miss Levers, which closed the entertaining program. The audience retired to the dining room for the refreshments which were served by the proprietor of the hotel.

HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.

Aggregate in United States Last Year Was $155,000,000.
Reports were made at the annual meeting of the national board of fire underwriters, which was held in the rooms of the board, at No. 32 Nassau street, New York, yesterday, showing that the aggregate loss by fire in the United States last year was $155,000,000, or more than in any one year
